USFN Announces McCarthy Holthus, LLP as a 2019 Diamond Award of Excellence Recipient

Award Ceremony Held at 2019 Member Education Retreat in Vail, Colorado

USFN, an industry trade organization representing America's mortgage banking attorneys for over thirty years, is pleased to reveal its 2019 Diamond Award of Excellence recipients. McCarthy Holthus, LLP was announced as a recipient in a private ceremony during the Association's annual Member Education Retreat in November.

"Each year we look at which members contribute consistently across our events, publications, programs, and products to help us keep the USFN brand in front of the mortgage servicing community and top-of-mind for servicing professionals as they seek quality education, networking, and partners," said USFN CEO Pamela L. Donahoo, CAE. Donahoo continued, "The Diamond Award of Excellence is our tradition of recognizing those invaluable contributions."

Diamond Award of Excellence recipients are USFN members in good standing who, over the past 12 months, have exhibited a high level of engagement and support of the Association's events, publications, training, and other resources built on the expertise of the USFN members. Award of Excellence standards evaluate professional activities, industry volunteerism, and community and charitable involvement of the firm. For over 30 years USFN has served as the nation's preeminent trade association of law firms and trustee companies focused on creditors rights'. The Award of Excellence program was initiated in 1993 to recognize and encourage member firms' to develop and maintain high standards of excellence in service to the industry and their community.
